

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

ASHTON WOODS HOLDINGS L.L.C., et al.,

Plaintiffs,

v.

USG CORPORATION, et al.,

Defendants.

Case No. 15-cv-01247-HSG

ORDER

The Court intends to impose time limits on each party at trial. Each party is DIRECTED to submit with their pretrial filings (1) the projected duration of the direct examination of each of its witnesses; (2) the anticipated duration of the cross-examination of each of the other party's disclosed witnesses; (3) the total number of hours projected (i.e., the sum of categories (1) and (2)); and (4) the estimated number of hours they expect their case to take (including opening, direct and cross examinations, and closing). These estimates should be realistic, not padded, and the Court ultimately will independently determine a reasonable hours limit assuming maximum efficiency by the parties in scoping and presenting their cases.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
